- (c) In case of a vacancy on the AFI Board of Directors falling before the expiry of its term, the AFI Board of Directors may in addition to any nomination from the outgoing Board member's institution, consider nominations from other AFI Members to fill the vacant position. Amended on 7 September 2016
- (d) The term of office for the AFI Board of Directors shall be two years, and a Board Member may serve a maximum of two consecutive terms. To ensure continuity, nominations for a second term of office shall be limited to a maximum of four Board members to provide for new Board nominations. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (e) One full term must pass before a Principal Member that has served two terms is eligible to serve again on the AFI Board of Directors. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (f) Any Board member appointed to the AFI Board of Directors following an unexpected vacancy during an ongoing Board term shall be regarded as having served the duration of the term if more than one year remains before its expiry. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (g) The AFI Board may appoint an external non-voting Board member selected from among AFI's main funders or cooperating partners with a strong track record of driving financial inclusion efforts. The institution to be considered for appointment shall demonstrate the following qualities and attributes:
- (i) Strong support and commitment to the mission and work of AFI;
 - (ii) Has a strategic focus on financial inclusion and is aligned with AFI members' interests;
 - (iii) Supportive of AFI's strategic approach and peer learning development model;
 - (iv) Provide substantial contribution as may be determined by the Board from time to time to support its administration, programs and activities; and
 - (v) Willing to support activities that are relevant and beneficial to, and in demand by AFI members;
- provided that the institution shall not be a private sector institution incorporated to provide a financial or regulated service in any of AFI members' countries and whose activities shall not be in conflict with the activities of AFI. Once appointed, the institution shall nominate a suitably qualified official to represent it on the Board.
- (h) The term of office of an external Board member is two years and shall be aligned to the term of Board, and an external Board member may, subject to re-nomination and appointment, serve a maximum of two consecutive terms. Re-appointment of the external Board member shall be decided by the AFI Board considering commitment to the activities of the Board of Directors in the previous term and compliance to the criteria stated in Article 18.8(e). Amended on 11 September 2019

 - (f) is guilty of serious misconduct in relation to his duties.

18.10 Chair and Vice-Chair of the AFI Board of Directors

- (a) The position of Chair of the AFI Board of Directors shall be held by a Head of a Principal Member institution. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (b) The position of Chair of the AFI Board of Directors shall be assumed by rotation from the position of Vice-Chair following the ending of the term of the exiting Chair of AFI Board of Directors provided he/she does not exceed the limit of two consecutive terms. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (c) Where the Vice-Chair cannot assume the position of Chair due to limit of consecutive terms on the Board, the Board shall by simple majority elect a new Chair from among the qualifying Board members at its first sitting. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (d) The position of Vice-Chair shall be held by a Head of a Principal member institution elected by the Board at its first sitting following the approval of its constitution by the Membership Council. To ensure continuity, the Vice-Chair shall be elected by simple majority voting from among the members serving the first term of office. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (e) A Principal Member institution represented on the Board by a Deputy Head of institution nominated in terms of Article 18.1 qualifies to be elected as Vice Chair, provided the institution confirms to the Board in writing that the Head of institution will assume the role of Board member. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (f) A new Vice-Chair shall be elected from within the AFI Board of Directors by simple majority voting and with at least two thirds of all Board members present with each rotation of a new Chair. Amended on 9 September 2020
- (g) In the event that both the Chair and Vice-Chair have exceeded the limit of two consecutive terms, the remaining Board members shall elect a new Chair and new Vice-Chair from among themselves. Amended on 13 September 2017
- (h) In the event of an unexpected vacancy on the position of Chair, the Vice-Chair assume the position of Chair until the next AGM and the AFI Board of Directors shall elect a Vice-Chair from among the Board members present.
- (i) The role of the Chair is to facilitate discussions and preside over meetings of the AFI Board of Directors. The Vice-Chair will facilitate discussions and preside over meetings in the absence of the Chair. Where both the Chair and Vice-Chair are absent, the remaining Board members may elect another person from among themselves to chair the meeting.
- (j) A Principal Member from AFI's host country may serve on the AFI Board of Directors but shall not be eligible to serve as Chair or Vice-Chair of the AFI Board of Directors.

18.11 Resignation

- (a) An AFI Board member as an individual may resign by sending written or electronic notice to the Chair of the AFI Board of Directors (and in the case of the Chair of the AFI Board of Directors, the Vice-Chair). Written notice at least 30 days in advance should be given to facilitate a smooth transition, unless a shorter time is agreed with the AFI Board of Directors.
- (b) In the case of separation of a Board representative of a member institution from the member institution, the representative shall cease to be a Board member. A transition period not exceeding 30 days may be given by the Chair or Vice-Chair to facilitate smooth handover. Amended on 7 September 2016

18.12 Dismissal

In the case of gross misconduct, an AFI Board member may be removed by decision of the AFI Board of Directors by at least two-thirds majority vote of the Board members present. Gross misconduct includes breach of duty, dishonesty, and conduct likely to bring AFI into disrepute.

18.13 Frequency of Meetings

- (a) General Meetings of the AFI Board of Directors shall be held at least three times a year. Special Meetings may be called on an ad-hoc basis by the Secretary of the AFI Board of Directors. Where an urgent matter requiring Board attention arises and the AFI Board of Directors is unable to meet in a formal meeting, the AFI Board of Directors may vote on a specific issue on circulation basis without calling a meeting of the AFI Board of Directors.
- (b) Two General Meetings of the AFI Board of Directors shall be attended in person, with one of these during the annual Global Policy Forum and the other at another venue. The third General Meeting and any Special Meetings may be held via video conferences and/or conference calls.

*Amended on 7
September
2016*

18.14 Notice of Meetings and Communications

General Meetings of the AFI Board of Directors shall be called by written notice of the Secretary no less than 45 days before the meeting date. The date, time, and place (if any) of such meetings will be determined by the Secretary in consultation with the AFI Board members. The Secretary shall inform the AFI Board members of the meeting agenda and circulate related documentation at least 14 days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting. Special Meetings may be called with shorter notice.

18.15 Meeting Participation

- (a) AFI Board members shall make every effort to attend all meetings. An AFI Board member who cannot attend a meeting may appoint an alternate delegate in accordance with Article 18.7 to represent the member and vote on behalf of the AFI Board member in a meeting.
- (b) The Annual General Meeting and Global Policy Forum are mandatory and only in exceptional circumstances may an AFI Board member be represented by the alternate qualified substitute at the Annual General Meeting and Global Policy Forum.
- (c) An AFI Board member who misses three consecutive General and Special Meetings may have their Board membership reconsidered by the AFI Board of Directors.

18.16 Record of Meetings

Decisions, advice, and recommendations made in a meeting of the AFI Board of Directors shall be recorded and meeting minutes shall be distributed to all members of the AFI Board of Directors. The minutes of an AFI Board of Directors meeting shall be approved by the AFI Board of Directors at the following meeting and retained in the permanent records of AFI.

Article 19: AFI Committees

19.1 Role and Composition

- (a) Committees shall provide specialized support to the AFI Board of Directors.
- (b) Committees are either permanent, or temporary (established for a two-year period or less). The Budget and Finance Committee, the Audit Committee, the Global Standards and Policy Committee, the Gender Inclusive Finance Committee, and the Investment Committee, are permanent Committees that can only be dissolved by modification of AFI's Articles of Association. Other permanent Committees can be similarly established and dissolved by modification of the Articles of Association. Temporary Committees can be established and dissolved by decision of the AFI Board of Directors and will operate for a fixed duration to achieve a predefined set of objectives. Each Committee will operate in accordance with its specific Terms of Reference. The AFI Board of Directors shall approve members to serve on any temporary Committee.

*Amended on 8
September 2021*

- (c) Each Committee shall consist of five to seven members. The Executive Director shall nominate an appropriate AFI Management Unit representative to serve as the Secretary of a Committee.
- (d) A Committee may permit other persons with relevant expertise to attend its Committee meeting when it is required but such other persons are not eligible to vote on any matter called to a vote.

19.2 Responsibilities

A Committee will have the responsibilities as set forth in the Terms of Reference for that specific Committee, as determined by the AFI Board of Directors.

19.3 Voting

Decisions of the Committees are made by simple majority with at least two thirds of all Committee members present. The Chair of the Committee shall have a casting vote in the case of an equality of vote.

19.4 Compensation

Committee membership is not a paid position. Committee members may, however, receive reimbursement of reasonable costs incurred when required to attend Committee meetings in person.

19.5 Eligibility

- (a) Only Principal Members are eligible to serve on a Committee. Principal Members serving on a Committee are eligible to serve on the same Committee for a maximum of two consecutive terms. Thereafter, one full term must pass before the Principal Member is eligible to serve again on the same Committee.
- (b) A Principal Member on the AFI Board of Directors may serve in other Committees except for the Budget and Finance Committee and the Audit Committee.
- (c) A Principal Member may serve on more than one Committee, including the Budget and Finance Committee or the Audit Committee.

19.7 Appointment and Term

- (a) Any new permanent Committee members will be proposed by the AFI Board of Directors to the Membership Council during the Annual General Meeting. Following approval by the AFI Membership Council, the new AFI Committee members will commence their roles at the conclusion of the corresponding Global Policy Forum.
- (b) Each AFI Committee member will be appointed for a two-year term.
- (c) For permanent Committees, a Principal Member is eligible to serve on the same Committee for a maximum of two consecutive two-year terms. Thereafter, at least one full term of two years shall pass before the Principal Member is eligible to serve again on the same Committee. AFI permanent Committees will strive to retain at least half of its members in office to ensure continuity.
- (d) In the event of an unexpected vacancy (e.g. as a result of the delegate's death, resignation or dismissal), the AFI Board of Directors shall appoint a new Committee member. The member institution from which a vacancy arises may nominate a replacement to be considered alongside candidate similarly nominated.

19.8 Chair and Vice-Chair of the AFI Committee

- (a) Committee members shall elect a Chair as well as a Vice-Chair from within the group by simple majority with at least two thirds of all Committee members present. For permanent Committees, at the end of the first two-year period, the Vice-Chair shall serve as the Chair for the following period to ensure continuity. A new Vice-Chair shall be elected by the Committee with each rotation of a new Chair.
- (b) The role of the Chair is to facilitate discussions and preside over meetings of the Committee. The Vice-Chair will facilitate discussions and preside over meetings in the absence of the Chair.

19.9 Resignation

- (a) A Committee member as an individual may resign by sending written or electronic notice to the Chair of the Committee (and in the case of the Chair of the Committee, the Vice-Chair). Written notice at least 30 days in advance should be given to facilitate a smooth transition, unless a shorter time is agreed with the AFI Board of Directors.
- (b) In the event of separation of a Committee member from a member institution, the member shall cease to be Committee member and the AFI Board of Directors may appoint a replacement.
